Based Research: Perspectives from the Field:

Community based research CBR offers useful insights into the challenges associated with conducting research and ensuring that it generates both excellent scholarship and positive impacts in the communities where the research takes place. This depends on two important variables: the capacity of CBR to generate good information and the extent to which CBR is understood and constructed as a two way relationship that includes a set of responsibilities for both research. Effectively treading the line between prescriptive and illustrative Doing Community Based Research is appealing and easy to apply, retool and retrofit for the instance at hand. It promises to be an excellent resource for implementing damage control a
