dr daniel e albrecht Periods of World History: A Latin American Perspective:

Periods of World History a Latin American Perspective is the first serious attempt to write a world history narrative in which Latin America receives serious consideration. The chronology of the work covers the normative period of world history to date 1800 B C to 1800 A D. During this time differentiation of world societies was at its height. The six civilized core areas of the ecumene interacted but were not moving toward uniformity as was characteristic of the first. About the Author Charles Truxillo is a professor of Chicano Studies at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. He received his Ph D in Latin American history at UNM and has published two other books History of Islam and By the Sword and the Cross Dr T
