1 of 1 review helpful Can be Useful Resource By AL If you live in the USA this is an interesting resource to learn about where supports services and resources can be found However I found the book to be very time specific and purchasing it even 1 year later it is out of date which is the nature of publications like these There could have been much more information about bisexuality overall in this book Bisexual resource guide providing information about bisexual organizations and events for social support activism and other general information about issues related to bisexuality
