This volume is designed to give librarians and teachers guidance on the subject of adoption and foster care both as themes in children's literature and as issues affecting many students. It includes 115 reviews of works of children's literature having themes related to adoption and foster care grouped by grade levels K 2 3 5 and 6 8 and including suggestions and comments for each. It offers an overview with historic and contemporary perspective. From School Library Journal. Meese's goal is to help adults particularly educators select high quality children's books about adoption and foster care and to raise awareness about the unique issues that adoptees often face.
